The Big Shot

Ben grew up in St. John's, then moved away to attend law at university.

He decided to come back to St. John's because he felt he could be a big shot at home.

He really wanted to impress everyone, so he returned and opened his new law office.

The first day, he saw a man coming up the sidewalk. He decided to make a big impression on this new client when he arrived.

As the man came to the door, Ben picked up the phone. He motioned the man in, all the while talking. "No, absolutely not. You tell those clowns in Toronto that I won't settle this case for less than one million.

Yes, the Appeals Court has agreed to hear that case next week. I'll be handling the primary arguments and the other members of my team will provide support. Okay, tell the Crown Attorney that I'll meet with him next week to discuss the details."

The "conversation" went on for almost five minutes. All the while the man sat patiently as Ben rattled instructions. Finally, Ben put down the phone and turned to the man, "I'm sorry for the delay but as you can see, I'm very busy. What can I do for you?"

The man replied, "I'm from NewTel and I came to hook up your phone."

That is it for now. Joe
